McFarland's BURGLAR and FIRE PROOF SAFES!

The subscribers would respectfully call the attention of the public to the above unrivalled safeguard of property—proof against the devouring element of fire, as well as the most cunning burglar. To MERCHANTS, JEWELERS, BANK DIRECTORS, we would only say examine for yourselves and judge. We will be content to rest our superiority over all other manufacturers.

Our business is done in plain, straightforward way, without resorting to humbug or large talk.

We have lost none of the many testimonials we are daily receiving from all parts of the country, some which speak for itself. Mesars Pond & Hitchcock's Old Stand was situated directly under the Revere House, and was totally consumed in the great fire of August 23d.

NEW YORK, Aug 23, 1853.

Messrs Wm. McFarland & Co.

Gentlemen: It affords me pleasure to inform you that the Fire and Burglar Proof Safe you purchased of me has preserved our books and papers, at the disastrous fire of the Revere House, last evening, in the most perfect manner. Although it was exposed to a heat throughout the fire with burning Rosin, and other fuel, and directly under a broken gas pipe, yet its intense heat it remained true to its owner, and to exploits upon taken out were not even scorched. You hardly bore the smell of fire. I can recommend it as an superior Safe, a perfect safeguard against fire, we cheerfully recommend your manufacture, having had a personal experience of their excellence. Yours truly,

B. F. POND & HITCHCOCK.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

To the Citizens of the United States—

I must heartily and sincerely thank you for the immense patronage which you have bestowed upon my Pills. I take this opportunity of telling that my sincere wishes to all American Citizens, and that I entertain for all that concerns America and the Americans, the most lively sympathies; so much so that I surgically compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitutions, and manner of living; intending to establish myself among you, which I have now done, by taking premises in New York. THOMAS HOLLOWAY.

80, Cornhill, Boston and Nassau Sts, New York.

PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD,

—AND—

LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.

The vitals of the human system suffer much from disorders of the liver and stomach, and many are the victims to the indulgence of these innumerable ailments, hence life wears fast. The fact is, perhaps the most handsome in the world, up to a certain period, when, disfigured by pain, it ends with our good friends, while yet in the heyday of life. Such and so many be effectually remedied by those totally stopping the blood pure, and the liver and stomach in a healthy action, when life will flow in a full and tranquil stream, and enjoyment be, where it usually ends, pain. Nothing is equal to Holloway's Pills for purifying the blood, and restoration of the human frame, and the duration of life can be effected, and it is certain that health and life can be prolonged for many years beyond the ordinary limit, if failing such Pills are taken to purify the blood according to the rules laid down for health contained in the directions which accompany each box.

A CASE OF WEAK LIMBS AND DEBILITY, OF 30 YEARS STANDING CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Johnson, Aspe House, New York, under date January 4th, 1854.

To Professor Holloway, 80, Cornhill and Nassau Streets, New York.

Sir—It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been relieved from debility and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years I suffered from a debilitating weakness of my limbs and stomach, which was increased to a painful extremity that I could hardly ship, and I expected to be laid up for life, I had tried every remedy that was recommended to me, but all to no purpose, and had given myself up to death, when I was advised to try your Pills, and I tried them. After taking them for three months, I can say that I am now in better health than I have been for eleven years past, as I feel as well as ever I was in my life. I feel myself quite able to make this known for the benefit of others.

Your's respectfully, JOHN JOHNSON.

(Signed)

Those celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blotches on the Skin, Bowel Complaints, Constipation, Costiveness, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Fevers of all kinds, Gravel, Inflammation, Indigestion, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scurvy, Sore Throats, Stone and Gravel, Stomach Complaints, Tic Doloureux, Venereal Affections, Worms of all kinds, Weakness, from whatever cause.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80, Corner of Nassau Street, New York, also by a respectable Druggist and Dealer in Medicines throughout the United States, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents, and $1.00 each. The last size contains more than the smaller ones.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

SEYMOUR'S GALVANIC ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER.

THESE appliances are now universally acknowledged to be the most efficacious Supporters ever invented, and are now valuable in all instances, beside the advantage of not being in the least degree injurious to the wearer. It has been tested, approved of, and is now actually adopted by the practice of all the leading physicians in New York, Boston and all other places where it is used, in the treatment of all Nervous diseases, which are produced by the use of improper Supporters, and are particularly in the case of Uterine Displacements. The beneficial results of its application are attended by the use of this, are not a mere matter of opinion, but are well attested by testimonials, which will be exhibited to any applicant.

Ladies can rely on the genuine Galvanic Supporter, as being the only one which does not retain behind impurities which pass from the skin, and cause to be kept pure and healthful.

The following testimonial from one who is respectfully solicited to examine and test the merits of the instrument. The Galvanic Supporters are for sale by GEO. W. EVERTS, Druggist, No. 4 Stanhope Block, sole agent for Bangor and vicinity.

Hotel-keepers, look at this!

Admirable Invention!

PATENT SELF REBATING

SMOOTHING IRON!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements; but females have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them in a very great degree, from the excessive and fatiguing labor of ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and despatch; one cent's worth of dry charcoal supplies fuel for a whole days' constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Hearths and Tables, irons are constructed upon the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

LOTS of Land for Rural Dwelling Houses, with large Fruit and Vegetable Gardens, adjoining the city, most desirable for the continuation of French St. and Broadway, and a street laid out, 50 feet wide, at the range with Broadway, (as it runs from State Street, to the Park.) This street is first out about 150 rods through my lands, extending over the west end of Mt. Pleasant. This land is north of and much higher than the Park, having a commanding view of the city and surrounding country.

Also, land for Orcharding and Farming, on the new Stage Road to Orono running by Coombs' Mills, a mile beyond and near the first convenient place for a school house, having a view of some part of the city on its western side. This land is considered as good as the farm on which I live where I have raised over 40 bushels of wheat to the acre, (as may be seen on the books of the P. A. Society.) And lots say half an acre in that proportion. Some adjacent may be found also on my land for Fruit Trees or any other purpose, by examining my nearest track and our Fruit Nurseries.

Midway East of the Mills has a considerable growth of wood on it, and some pasture, for fences. We can go three turns a day, by taking one of the easiest roads running out of Bangor.

Liberal terms will be given on it, and the size of the lots made to suit purchasers.

N. HARLOW.

Bangor, March 25, 1854

From my personal and advanced age, should appreciate the probable results of a few years good business in Bangor, purchasing land from an original lot, beginning at East Market Square, (the northerly part of Lot No. 68, Holland's Plan, as referred to) which there is leading and important streets are laid out pointing into our great and important northern and western country, he can now decide. These streets will afford some of our finest seats for regal Homes and valuable Fruit Establishments, without exception. It is only a strong wish to be relieved from part of my cares, and that of closing business of this kind which could induce me to sell at this time by the quantity.

An Ordinance in addition to an Ordinance further providing for the Regulation of the Police.

Sec 1—It is ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bangor, in City Council assembled,

That annually in the month of March or April, and at such other times as the Mayor and Aldermen may deem it expedient, a number of special Deputy Marshals, not exceeding twenty in all, may be nominated and appointed as is provided in said ordinance, to which this ordinance is an addition, passed March 21, 1854, and that said Marshals, when appointed, shall be called "Special Deputy Marshals" and shall be removable at the discretion of the Mayor and Aldermen, and shall each, before entering upon the duties of the office, be sworn into "Special Deputy Marshals," and give bond to the City in the same manner as the Night and Aldermen, in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and the obligations of this ordinance, whereupon said Special Deputies shall possess and exercise, under the direction of the City Marshal, all the powers now or hereafter vested in the Night Watch. Said Special Deputy Marshals shall, while on duty, wear a badge with the word "Police" upon their hats or caps.

Sec 2—It is further ordained, That all the aldermen, deputy Marshals, clerks and other officers, appointed under this ordinance, shall be entitled to all the powers authorized by the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act giving additional powers to Cities," approved June 13, 1850, and shall hold their office, and be removed by the Mayor and Aldermen, until other shall be appointed, and qualified in their stead.

Sec 3—Be it further ordained, That no compensation or salary shall at any time be made from the City Treasury to any of said Special Deputies.

CITY OF JERUSALEM—VISIT TO THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The objects of interest in Jerusalem are so numerous, and so many are very numerous, I shall not undertake a minute description, but a better felt to those who have more time, and who come here with the requisite qualifications, and under circumstances which are more favorable to an extended and specific inquiry. There is such work in Jerusalem and its vicinity, for profound scholars, for painters, poets, historians;—a work which it is very certain, cannot be satisfactorily performed, especially so far as relates to the controverted antiquities, by transient visitors. There are men, however, who in the time they will be found adequate to the task. Without mentioning all the names which I am thinking of, I will only say here that Dr. Robinson, of our own country, has made a good and fair beginning, which entitled him to the gratitude of the friends of Bible learning and Bible inquiries, conducted with the same energy and energy, will throw great light upon those interesting topics. At the same time I think there may possibly be some value in a more general writing, where the moral, social and physical are intoxicated together. I shall describe, or rather make the attempt to describe, only generally and briefly.

I set out one day to the top of the Mount of Olives, in company with two American friends. Form this command to go up, we endeavored to arrange and fix in our minds the objects around us. With an estimated height of more than two thousand feet above the Mediterranean, carrying it high above Jerusalem, this celebrated mountain, which in itself is an object of great interest, was favorable to our purpose. Standing on that part of the summit, which is occupied by the chapel of the Ascension,—so called because it was supposed by its builders to be erected over the place where the Saviour ascended,—we gazed with deep interest upon the various objects, which here presented themselves to view. Looking in one direction, we had before us Jerusalem, and the deep ravines which enclose it on the South and East, and the mountains which rise above it on every side. In the other direction was the rough and elevated region, bounded by the valley of the Jordan and the Dead Sea, and by the mountains of Moab beyond.

But this first view, which enabled me to fix in mind, the outlines of objects, was calculated to satisfy the head rather than the heart. Perhaps I may more clearly express myself thus. The mind was out to the objects; but the influence of the objects had not time to come back, and to write itself upon the mind. The Mount of Olives must take its own time, and have its visitors all to itself, in order to make present and to convey into the soul all that is capable of feeling.

This, I suppose, will be easily understood. Places, as well as persons, have power.—Thoughts, these seeds are in the soul, are oftentimes the product and the out-growth of situations. The influence, which such situations or places possess over the human mind, is very various in its origin;—sometimes from the greatness of nature and objects from the greatness of art;—sometimes from the power which they still hold, and sometimes from the power which they have lost,—sometimes from sympathy with the living, and sometimes from the memory of the dead. Many are the places, which thus speak to the soul either with a natural or associated power;—eloquently, it is true, the inward rather than the outward language;—and therefore speaking with a voice, if I may so express it, without voice;—silent as the stars, and yet oftentimes loud as the thunders.

One of the many places which have this power in a remarkable degree—perhaps as much so or with very little exceptions as any in the world,—is the Mount of Olives. Irregular in its surface, with here and there a few olives and fig-trees still growing among its projecting rocks, it adds to the impressions which naturally attach to its rough and majestic form, the power which it derives from its history, its associations, and its position.

I had gone through the streets of Jerusalem; and had laid in, fully impressed, both within and without its walls, the various objects of interest, which the pens of numerous travellers have sufficiently made known. Before our little company left the city on our way to other parts of Palestine, and on the route preliminary to our return to America, I felt a secret and strong desire to stand once more the Mountain where the Saviour had so often been;—and sided by its lofty summit, to look again upon the theatre of the great events and sufferings which the Scriptures record. On the occasion to which I now refer, which was a day or two before our departure, it was convenient for me to go alone. This only my wish. I came visit to the tomb of a departed friend far remained with the state of my feelings;—because my object was, not to converse with men, but with God, nature, history, and eternity. I easily found a secluded and lofty position suited to my object; and as I looked abroad from the mosque and in remodelling and replacing the temple. It was there, I said to myself, that the wonderful structure stood, of which I had read so much in my childhood and which described in history and rendered visible in feelings, had become a part of my thoughts and dreams;—on the place which is now before me—the place ascertained and identified with the concurrence of all antiquarians and vanish as I looked upon it in its marked and opposing outline seemed to me to carry the evident of its historic claims in itself. It was there where the great edifice was erected,—that "house," shining in cedar and gold, which required a nation's wealth in building, in which the ark and the covenant were shrined in glory, and which, by its history, its position, and its rites and ceremonies, became the central and controlling element in the system of religion, which was superseded by the prophecy and the doctrines of Christ. Subterranean crypts, arches and gates, and the immense blocks of granite, constituting in the rabbinical subjections which still remain, some above ground and some below,—but which will be likely to be better known in the exploration of future times,—furnish evidence. But, when we read in the Bible of the glory both of the first and second Temple, and of the wealth and state of the times of Solomon, is no exaggeration.

As the traveller stands upon the Mount of Olives, the ancient as well as the modern Jerusalem, at least in its essential features, is restored and made present to his eye. Following the attractions of sight and memory, and crossing the deep Tyropœon valley, which, however, is now nearly filled up and is rapidly precipitate from this elevated position, he next ascends the hill of Zion. Here, in the neighborhood of the Bethlehem gate, is the tower of Hippicus, standing in grandeur to the present hour,—whole strong foundations, hardly less immovable than the mountain rock, carry the mind back to distant ages. Some antiquarians assign the laying of these massive foundations to the historic era of king David. Beyond the wall, and within the court or enclosure area of a Mohammedan Mosque, is David's tomb. "This sepulchre," says the Apostle Peter, "is with us unto this day." Around the tomb are small cultivated fields. The damnations of prophecy are fulfilled. The plough has passed over the summit of Zion.

It was here, in this part of Jerusalem, that the son of Jesse, the warrior of the Psalmist of Israel, had his residence; this, then, is that hill of Zion, which he describes in his own matchless language, as "beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth." This is the place which for ages held the sword and the seat of empire. From this mountain rock, which lifts its Southern brow so proudly over the deep valley of Hinnom, the tide of aggressive war has been scattered and driven back. Conquering armies, proud to obey the greatest king of Israel, have stood upon its frowning heights.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1854.

☞ The proposition of the Sons of New Castle, who have removed from home to go westward, to invite all the Sons of that ancient town who have wandered away, to return, for the purpose of celebrating with them the approaching fourth of July, meets with much favor among the scattered hosts. The old and the middle-aged and the young will answer to such a summons and talk of other days when they took off their hats to "Parson Spring," or met William Bartlett, Moses Bloomer, Joseph Marquand and John Parsons, on their wharves or in the market. It is a glorious old town, to move from, at any rate, because it is so agreeable to look back to.

☞ Spring seems to be coming forward very rapidly, and soon farmers will need all the help they can command, on account of the loss of the planting season.

In Aroostook county, until last winter, there has been no frost in the earth, the early snows falling before the ground froze, and upon the departure of the snow in the spring the soil has been ready to be worked. Last fall the ground froze deeply before the snow fell, and the effect is somewhat feared, on account of retarding the spring work.

☞ The Albany Evening Journal says that Allan Campbell, Esq., who surveyed and superintended the construction of several railroads in South America has been engaged to make a reconnoissance of a projected route from Mendoza, on the eastern base of the Andes to Montevideo, on the Atlantic. In distance is about 600 miles, and with the roads already built west of the Andes, will create a rapid communication across the South American continent, broken only by that chain of mountains. He has commenced the survey.

UNCLE JERRY'S LETTERS TO YOUNG MOTHERS. Compiled by Ann B. Porter. Boston: John P. Jewett & Co.: 1853.

This is a handsome little volume of one hundred and forty-four pages. It contains a mine of practical wisdom for every day life in the domestic circle, and many of its incidents are very heart touching. Young mothers, and others, too, will find here many suggestions of value.

This work may be obtained at the bookstore of Messrs. Patch & Lewis.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for May has been received promptly, as usual, and a general survey of its embellishments and illustrations, and the quality of its matter satisfies us that it is equal to previous numbers, is just what the ladies want in their gentle labors, and twenty-five cents cannot be better expended on a family of girls than in the purchase of this number!

It may be found at the bookstores.

☞ There is to be a new inauguration of the New York Crystal Palace, not by office holders, but by the people; and a grand exposition of labor and the arts, together with other appropriate ceremonies. The fete is to come off on the 4th of May next. In the mean time, a great many new and attractive features will be added to the exhibition.

☞ Messrs Patch & Lewis have for sale a neat pamphlet, from the press of John P. Jewett & Co. of Boston, entitled "Nebraska: Its Resources, Prospects and Political," with which it is personal enough in all conscience, now can leave. It is strongly marked and will be generally read.

☞ The Bill recommended by the Board of Agriculture, for an Agricultural School, has been killed in the Legislature. The Age remarks that the farmers in the Legislature seem to think that they need no additional instruction in the branch of industry.

Disastrous by the Late Storm.

Our accounts from various parts of the coast show that the late storm has proved very disastrous to the shipping, and that a local interest is attached to the circumstance, on account of the melancholy fact that one of the vessels wrecked was owned in this city and another in Camden.

The schooner Manhattan, Capt. Fields, of Bangor, from Philadelphia for this city, was wrecked near Long Beach. All on board perished except one seaman, who is in such a condition as to be unable to give any particulars.

The ship Octavia, Sproul, from New York for Wilmington, Delaware, went ashore at Lewes, Del., and will earn. All the crew were rescued by means a complete wreck and the cargo was floating along the beach.

The schooner Lenity is a complete wreck, her crew being safe, and mainmast through her bottom.

The other vessels ashore will be got off.—These names are schooners Frank, Fashion, and Brewers, and sloops Eliza Jane, and Davis Vanderman. No lives were lost.

NEW YORK, April 19.

The passengers of the Underwriter, ashore at Gravesend, have arrived. They were all got safe from the ship in life-boats safely. It is also stated that the ship will be got off.

The surgeon of the Underwriter reports her anchoring on the outer bar, with her head offshore where she was on Tuesday morning at half past four o'clock. All hands were employed throwing the cargo overboard. She does not leak, and it was thought would come ashore, as she would be got off at high water.

The tow-boat Delaware, hence for Philadelphia, which has been lying at anchor under the Hook for two days, while endeavoring to tend a distress to the Underwriter, left her boat and gave off her men.

A despatch from Philadelphia says the vessel ashore, Lorenzo, is supposed to be the Bremen ship Humboldt, from Hamburg for New York. She had from 300 to 400 passengers on board, none of whom, it is supposed, are lost.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.

A despatch received at the Ledger office from Long Branch states that the ship Powhattan from Havre for New York came ashore on Sunday morning, near Egg Harbor light. She had 300 passengers on board, not one of whom was saved. Thirty-three bodies have been washed ashore at Long Beach. Not a vestige of the wreck is left.

The Powhattan became to Baltimore, and arrived from Havre about March 1. She is an old vessel, of about 700 tons, and valued at $ 8,000. She probably had no cargo.

A despatch from Absecom, says that up to last night, about 40 dead bodies, men, women and children, had been washed ashore on that and the opposite beach. They appear to be Germans, but are much disfigured. Bodies are continually being washed on shore.

☞ The Mayor of Calais, in his present address to the City Council, recommended strongly the propriety and necessity of the city purchasing a suitable lot of land for a public common. No greater mistake can be made by a young and growing city than to neglect making provision for public grounds and early setting them out with suitable ornamental trees, in order to have the benefit of the growth of trees.

☞ A Washington writer says that every thing is dead in Congress. There will be no Pacific Railroad, no Homestead bill, and no other measure of importance, scarcely, passed at this session. Nebraska has paralyzed the whole most, not excepting the Assisted bill.

☞ The Universalists intend to erect a monument over the grave of Rev. Hosea Ballou, at Mount Auburn, and propose to take up a collection for that purpose, in all their churches, on the first Sabbath in May.

ASHLAND.—Plantation No. 11 in Aroostook county—the post office of which is called Aroostook,—has been incorporated as a town by the name of Ashland.

☞ We would direct attention to the advertisement in another column headed Information Wanted. A family in distress would be relieved by learning the fate of an interesting daughter.

☞ A brother of the Captain General of Cuba is now in Washington on business connected with the Black Warrior difficulty.

☞ Hay, in some portions of Aroostook is selling at forty dollars a ton, and oats at one dollar and twenty-five cents a bushel.

☞ The steamers will take their departure for Bangor on their trips to Portland and Boston on the first of May.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

Is any thing being done by the Health Officer towards cleansing the city previous to the arrival of warm weather? I think that where an entire family, a cow and calf, and a sow with nine pigs occupy one small room, material for infectious disease might be found requiring removal not at the expense of the city.

PARKER STREET.

NEW YORK, April 9.

The schooner Nebraska, from Port Lawrence, has been destroyed by fire at sea. Vessel and cargo worth $20,000. Insured in Wall street.

A despatch from Charleston, S. C., says that a destructive fire occurred in that city, destroying the stores occupied by Messrs Lane, Cotton, Brown, Fanning, Courtney, Gilland, Hyatt & Co. The insured loss is $400,000.

The Steamer Governor.

This fine steamboat, which has been undergoing a most thorough overhauling this past winter, has for some time been completed, and will be put on the route between this city and Bangor, on the course of two or three weeks. The delay has been caused by the late arrival of her boilers, but it will be compensated for in the thorough fitting up and furnishing of the boat. The Governor has long been a favorite with eastern travellers, and under the command of that accomplished officer, Capt. Rogers, as stated by Mr. Wm. L. Ramsdell, clerk, Mr. G. Rogers as pilot, and Geo. B. Robinson as steward of experience and capable officers, she cannot but continue to have a large share of patronage.—Portland State of Maine.

Drowned.

On Sunday night the 9 inst., Samuel Dennison of Machias, left B. A. Tuttle's inn, the river below this place in a small sail boat to go to Machias. On Tuesday morning it was the boat and the body of Dennison were picked up at Round Island about two miles below Machias, it is supposed his boat upset. It is supposed that in the squall of Sunday evening this happened, that Dennison got on the bottom of the boat, and in this condition was carried down river past the Point until the strong current were heard by people at the Point, but in the darkness of the night, and the severity of the gale no assistance could be rendered him.—Machias Union.

The Mildew of Plants—The Potato.

NUMBER FIVE.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

The loss on the potato crop of 1853, in New England, and in New York, by diminished production, and by rot, I estimate at ten millions of dollars. The number of bushels grown in these States in 1852, was 66,304,114 bushels. In 1843 I bought potatoes in the spring for sixteen cents per bushel—now they are worth in Bangor, and other markets, $1,00 to $1,25 per bushel, an advance of 700 per cent. This diminished production is charged to the rot. The rot is always preceded by the mildew of the top. The cause of mildew, or smut, the death of the plant is unknown, it is little understood now, as it was when Pharaoh dreamed of "the seven full and good ears, and the seven ears withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind;" typical of seven years of plenty, and seven years of famine which were to follow. The magicians of that age were unable to expound the dream, and the learned and scientific of our own times, and the intermediate time, have as signally failed to exhibit how an ear, or stalk, or leaf, of wheat is blasted. Thus showing that we have made but little advance in the most material part of the natural history of plants, since the time when Jacob sent his sons from Canaan down to Egypt, for corn. Moses, at a later period, threatened to bring "mildew" upon the crops of the wicked and disobedient Israelites, as a punishment for the past, or to restrain them for the future. And the Romans had their false god Robigo, whom they thought to propitiate for the preservation of their fields from the disastrous attacks of these diseases. A feast called Robigalia, to their deity, was always kept on the 25th of April, to prevent blasting and mildew.

The effects of mildew upon plants, presenting different appearances, were considered then, as now, diseases, and were matters of curious speculation, and regarded as accidents of vegetation, resulting in a cause of injured cell. From the dampness of the soil, excess of manure, or fogs, or winds, or punctures of insects, &c., &c. The whole subject, which has puzzled the learned world so long, and been the superstitious creed of the ignorant, is all locked up in the single word, mildew, to be unlocked with a key of ten words. The key I claim to possess.

I am not prepared, at present, to unlock so great a treasure to the world; but, if there are in Bangor or vicinity, a few persons who are willing to obligate themselves to keep the secret, till the proper time to divulge it, and pay a small sum, conditionally. I will confide the key to them about the first of June. The conditions to be made known hereafter. Any gentlemen disposed to avail themselves of this offer, if any, may leave their names with the Hon. S. H. Blake, William A. Blake, Esq., or Col. Bugbee.

A. GLENRIGH FARMER.

Maine Legislature.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, April 19.

Mr Muzzy called up the bill to incorporate the West Penobscot Agricultural Society, and moved its reference to the next legislature. It was a new matter; and what would be its effect on the old agricultural society, he could not say. His impression was that it would greatly injure it. It took out the best towns in the county, and left the balance in a bad and inconvenient shape. The course of the petitioners is that it is inconvenient to go to Bangor to attend the Fairs. The people of Bangor of course had no feeling in this matter, save from the interest of the Society. He thought the matter had better go over till next year, when the parties could have a full hearing, and the subject be perfectly understood; and if the application was according to the wishes of the county, it could be granted.

The motion to refer then prevailed.

Finally passed—Bills, to abolish the office of chaplain of the State Prison; to amend the act incorporating the Hancock Mutual Insurance Company; to increase the capital stock of the Lumbermen's Bank; to amend chapter 129 of the revised statutes; to make valid the doings of plantation No. 11 in the county of Aroostook; relating to petitions for partition; resolves, authorizing the Governor and Council to settle the account of Adams Trent for services in superintending repairs of the State Prison in relation to certain proposed modifications of the navigation laws of the U. States; allowances of bounty to fishing vessels, and reciprocal trade with the British North American Colonies; in favor of George Ross.

HOUSE.

WEDNESDAY, April 19.

Bill relating to the recording of mortgages of personal property was called up, amended, and passed to be engrossed.

Passed Finally—Bills, to amend an act incorporating the Hancock Mutual Insurance Company; to amend chapter 89 of the revised statutes; to abolish the office of chaplain of the State Prison; to make valid the doings of plantation No. 11, in the county of Aroostook; to increase the capital stock of the Lumbermen's Bank; resolves in relation to certain proposed modifications of the navigation laws of the United States; allowances of bounty to fishing vessels, and reciprocal trade with the British North American Colonies; in favor of George Ross; authorizing the Governor and Council to settle the account with Adams Trent for services in superintending repairs of the State prison. Adjourned.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

SENATE.

In the Senate, numerous memorials and petitions were presented, including thirteen against the Nebraska bill. A bill to facilitate the unloading of vessels from foreign ports was passed.

The House amendments to the Senate bill increasing the pay of clerks in the departments were concurred in. The bill to recompense the discoverer of anæsthesia was discussed.

The bill recites that Drs. Morton and Jackson of Boston, and others, claimed to be the discoverers, and it appropriates $100,000 to the real discoverer, as decided by a suit in equity.

A debate ensued. Mr Dawson said a Dr. Long, of Athens, Ga., claimed to be the real discoverer.

Mr Pettit said he could satisfy the Senate that such discovery was made in 1842, by Dr Samuel Guthrie, of New York.

Mr Rusk mentioned another claimant, named Dr Dickson.

The bill was amended so as to include the names of these and all other claimants, and passed by a vote of 23 to 13.

The Homestead bill was then taken up. Mr. Wade offered an amendment, striking out the part limiting the benefit of it to those who are residents of the United States or its territories.

Mr Adams opposed both the amendment and the bill, and spoke at length on the subject.

Mr Thompson of Kentucky also opposed the bill.

Mr Brown of Mississippi gave notice of a substitute for the bill. The substitute makes preemption rights permanent. The bill was postponed, and after an executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The Indigent Insane Land bill was passed by a vote of 81 yeas to 81 nays. The amount of land granted to the several States is ten millions of acres. The House then adjourned.

TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Particulars of the Wreck of the Powhattan.

BOSTON, April 21.

It is now ascertained that the ship Powhattan left Havre with 311 passengers, but no cargo. A letter in the Herald says the Powhattan went ashore on Saturday morning and remained until five o'clock on Sunday, P. M., before she went to pieces. The passengers, all the while clinging to the leeward bulwarks, with the sea washing over them.

The ship was so near the shore that the Captain's voice was distinctly heard giving orders, cheering up the passengers and calling to the shore for assistance. It was impossible however to rescue them any, as no boat could have lived a moment in the surf. A great number of trunks belonging to the passengers had drifted ashore, but not one of the passengers or crew reached the shore alive. So far as could be ascertained by those who watched the ship from the shore 130 bodies had been washed ashore up to yesterday noon, at Absecom, Brigantine and Long Beach. They appear to be of the better class of German emigrants. The younger persons were in their night clothes. Not a particle of the wreck had then come ashore. At 7 o'clock the ship's masts fell, and almost immediately afterwards the hull burst asunder, when the officers, crew and passengers went down, and the ship soon disappeared. Captain Jennings, wreck master remained on the beach all night, but as before stated, no living being was rescued. The names of many of the passengers have been ascertained from books and other articles found. The majority of those washed ashore are women and children.

The officers and crew belong principally to Mary and New York.

The Powhattan was insured in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The Schooner Manhattan of Bangor.

George Griffith, the only survivor of the crew of the schooner Manhattan, has so far recovered as to be able to converse. He says the schooner was loaded with coal and was owned in Bangor. She had one passenger, who with the remainder of the crew, six in number, have perished.

Ship Saxony ashore.

Ship Saxony of Boston, bound to Matanzas and Liverpool went ashore off the 8th inst., on the coast of Florida to the southward of Jupiter inlet.

The mate arrived at Charleston yesterday in the steamer Carolina from St. Augustine. He left the ship on the 11th inst., with twelve feet of water in her hold.

Seven small vessels were ashore on the Florida coast.

PISCIOLOGY.

The winter has passed and gone,
And Spring has come with its FISH
Thomas Bickford

Tenders his professional thanks, with such considerations of respect, to his numerous friends for the support and patronage they have given him in his Fish'ng ways.

FRESH FISH.

The spring-time, with its cool water, and the time of the singing of the birds—beginning to appear like the opening of a rose; and

"Forthwith the sources, and springs, each creek and bay
With fish innumerable swarm, and shoals
Of FISH, that with their fins and tails driving amain
Glide under the green wave, in scaliest that will Bank the mid sea."

My arrangements are completed with the brave fishermen in all the localities named above by that rationable man and lover of good Fish, John Milton, who, if alive, would be among my best customers. Fish Market supplied with the best and brightest Fish of the season—CODFISH, HADDOCK, HALIBUT, MACKEREL, LOBSTERS, &c.

The collected wisdom of the State, assembled at Augusta, has considered it of my determination to furnish the best Rum Fish to Penobscot Bangor, through my market to accommodate still the numerous of active boys, have refused to restrain the running of the plump Salmon to the Penobscot. These my efforts are small out and succeeded by great loss, and that prevents my being second to any one in the Fish line.

Pickerel, Trout, and Lake Fish.

I shall have men engaged in fishing for my Market in all places.

DO NOT FORGET,

If you have a cough or cold, hoarseness, asthma, or any thing of the kind, that Pike's Pectoral Compound, a pleasant remedy, has cured such diseases. Here is one of many cases:

"Having been afflicted with hoarseness and obstinate cough (after using other remedies in vain) I purchased a bottle of Mr. Pike's 'Pectoral Compound,' which speedily removed my complaint in a few days. Its effects were so very beneficial upon a friend to whom I recommended it."

Information Wanted.

ON the 11th of April inst., Melissa Jane Patten daughter of Charles V. Patten of Bradley, left the house of Mr. Adam Blackman in Bradley where she had been living nearly a year, for the concealed purpose of visiting her mother who was on a visit to the child's grandfather in Etna. Her husband being in the woods, Melissa attired for school, as the family supposed, but revealed her purpose to a school mate she met on the road since which nothing has been heard or can be learned regarding her. She was thirteen years of age, very straight, large of her age, with blue eyes and brown hair, round faced and small featured; wore a dark delaine dress, fig hood and black shawl, her poorest school dress.

Whoever will give information where Melissa may be found, or where she may have been seen, will confer a great favor on an afflicted and anxious family. Intelligence may be directed to the office of the Bangor Courier.

Dr. Langley's Root and Herb BITTERS.

A COMPOUND of Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, Prickly Ash, Dandelion Thoroughwort, Wild Cherry, Mandrake, and Rhubarb. Just the Medicine for Ladies, sure to do them good.

SPRING HAS COME!

Read, consider, reflect! as I know that after being shut up or confined in factories, or workshops all winter the Liver becomes inactive and unhealthy, thus filling the blood with vitiated humors, producing Jaundice, Weakness, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Headache, Costiveness, Indigestion, Foul Stomach, Piles, Langour, and General Debility. Now then, if you wish to remove all the evil together with humors in the blood and skin, take Dr. Langley's Root and Herb Bitters—at least one or two bottles. They always do good and never hurt. Let each and every man, woman and child have a bottle at only 25 cents for a pint, 37½ cents for a quart bottle.

Now Nature, herself, a sure remedy brings,
Which cleanses the current of life at the springs
From fearful Diseases that bear to the grave,
Langley's Root and Herb Bitters infallibly save.
There's scarcely a dangerous disease we can name,
In which the Root and Herb Bitters have not some share of fame.
And so safe is their action, they cannot do harm,
While they strengthen the weak and act like a charm.
Are you Temperance folks—when this medicine is used—
No drink alcoholic is by it refused
Nor need the fond mother feel an idle alarm,
To the tenderest infant it cannot do harm.
Is your Liver disordered? is Jaundice your foe?
Then Langley will deal both the monsters a blow;
Do you suffer from Headache—'tis it gives you relief;
For Folks 'tis of all cures acknowledged the chief;
The motto of Philip are and Pill says on good,
"Who tries of superior, has really stood."
And many unite in this truth well appeal,
That the Root and Herb Bitters is a copy and Friend.
Is your Appetite gone, then the Root Bitters take,
And you'll heartily relish your food for your meals;
The Blood it will purify—redden your cheeks,
And strong has your frame should it ever grow weak,
The Ladies declare no such Remedy is known,
And the sale is an index to the Fair Sex alone!
No wonder, the Bitters make Lovely to fly;
Brings new bloom to the lip, new fire to the eye!

Sold in Bangor, wholesale and retail, by Ingraham & Fuller, Guild & Hasker, and by all Druggists and dealers in Medicine in Bangor, Orono, Oldtown, Stillwater, Hampden, Frankfort, and Buckesport, at 25 cents a pint and 37½ cents for a quart bottle.

Joseph Gillott's Steel Pens

Infringement of Trade Marks!!

AT THE GENERAL TERM OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, held at the City of New York, March 11th, 1854, in the case of GILLOTT vs. LEWIS A. KETTLE, by order of the Special Term was affirmed with costs.

This above action was had against the defendant for the sale of Pens in boxes from which the original labels had been removed, and other labels placed thereon, purporting that the pens were the "Sterline No. 303, manufactured by the Plaintiff."

Notice is hereby given, that legal proceedings will be commenced against all persons detected in the sale of Pens bearing said changed labels.

A Reward of One Hundred Dollars

will be paid to the printer of said labels, or any other person who will enable the Plaintiff to make proof of the quantity of labels so printed, and the persons for whom they were printed.

Caution to Consumers.

Please observe that each Genuine Pen No. 303, has the said number stamped thereon, with the maker's name in full.

PRIGG'S Green Mountain Vegetable CEMENT,

FOR joining Broken China, Glass, Earthenware, Metals, Wood, Cabinet Work, and Fancy Articles of every description. This Cement, which has been proved to be of great strength, will be found particularly useful in every family. The simplicity of its application is alone a recommendation. The adhesive property which it contains is so wonderful that many things will rather break in a fresh place than where they have been mended with it. The variety of purposes for which it may be used, are so numerous, that it would be difficult to recite them. Its success in mending Glass, China, &c., is so undoubtedly, no ordinary degree of heat affecting it, and as the joints are scarcely perceptible, articles of this kind may be made useful, for years which otherwise would have been cast away. The above article may be had, wholesale or retail, of GEO. W. EMERSON, No. 4 Smith's Block, General Agent for the State of Maine.

KENNEDY'S

The Greatest of the Age!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures ALL MANNER OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over Five Hundred cases and never failed to cure. Hundreds have purchased for the purpose of testimonials, but now it has proved for itself, and we have not room for the certificates of its value, all of which we have in our possession, from the most respectable sources in Boston.

Two Bottles are warranted to cure a running sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the worst case of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly erupt ons on the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most disgusting cases of the itch.

Five to eight bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

A bottle is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing in the world is comparable to it, who have used it. If the wonderful medicines of the day is that it comes in wood growing upon the pastures and dong old ... Why should cure every humor, ...
